SPY

Evening Challenge.

The Evening (or Lunchtime!) Spy Challenge runs alongside a meal and is run with each table becoming team, who are competing against the other tables for the coveted Spy Dollars! Challenges and activities are run at each banqueting table, by pooling together the groups knowledge and skills. This is usually held on banqueting rounds of 8-10 participants, but we can be flexible on this to accommodate whatever you'd like.

This event is a great way to create interaction and communication, without disrupting the dinner service. Participants remain seated with their team whilst special agents deploy various activities and challenges to their table. Initially, a locked briefcase is given to each team and they need to crack the code to open the case. Once inside, a number of paper based observational challenges will test the tables knowledge and skills.

In between courses, the tables are invited to take part in further code breaking challenges, as well as a surveillance challenge after watching a short clip from a famous James Bond film! All challenges are completed to gain as many Spy Dollars as possible, providing entertainment from the moment guests sit down at the tables, until the meal has finished.

After dessert, all cash and answer sheets are collected and the table/team with the most Spy Dollars at the end of the evening will be crowned 'Spy Challenge Champions', with each member of the team receiving a coveted winner's medal!

Typical running times for this event is from 7.00pm – 9.30pm, but we can be flexible to suit your event.

THE DE GENERATION GAME

The De-Generation Game is a hilarious homage to the TV show that was so popular in the 70s, 80s and 90s. Packed with seriously silly, but fantastically funny games – this is an activity that works brilliantly as an ice-breaker or for teams who know each other well.

Teams will need to battle it out with challenges ranging from Moari HAKA dancing to balloon modelling and cake decoration. Does your team have what it takes to make it through the Human Conveyor Belt to take the top prize? With everyone pulling together, these games are brilliant for team bonding, but more than that, they are fun. Remember, “Life is the name of the game.”

Activities can include up to 5 of the following, plus finale:

- Balloon Modelling - Teams must recreate an amazing balloon model after watching the demonstration.
- Giraffe - Create the tallest free-standing giraffe using only newspaper and sellotape. Random, but fun!
- Cake Decorating - Groups must portray their team through the medium of cake decoration!
- Doctors and Nurses - Teams are given a first aid lesson before bandaging up their team mates and sending their best patient to the front for Matron's inspection.
- Face Painting - After a demonstration, teams must give each other a make-over with face paints!
- Plate Spinning - Master the art of plate spinning, which isn't as easy as it looks!
- Trashy Fashion - Design and create an outfit out of bin bags, ribbons, and other craft materials for one of your team to model. Strutting their stuff on the catwalk, they must wow the judges with your stylish garment!
- Body Parts ("Pin the Coccyx on the Sacrum") - Teams stick pictures of unidentified body parts in the anatomically correct place on a team mate, but will they pass our diagnosis?

Great evening entertainment, unrivalled networking and the opportunity to test your investment skills. Antiques Auction is an ideal activity to hold around your evening dinner. It provides a fantastic way for your team to just relax and enjoy themselves.

As your dinner guests have their pre-dinner drinks, they are greeted by our esteemed auctioneer and team. With catalogue in hand, your surprised guests can then chat with each other and view the auction lots situated around them. Before dinner and between courses, we auction off each of the items to the group. They all start off with a handsome credit balance to play with, so it's not long before the arm chair experts, wine buffs and art critics are sucked into the bidding wars.

After the money is spent and the risky bids are all done, Miss Funnypenny (our accounts manager) will cook the books to find out which table bought the bargains and swerved the red herrings. Only one table can be victorious but it's hilarious to find out the ridiculous over-spending from the others!

Debate, confirm or discard is the name of the game, keeping one eye on the credit and another on potential dodgy deals. Our Antiques Auction is specifically designed to add tremendous fun and excitement to your corporate dinner without disrupting the meal. It provides an ideal opportunity for people to get to know each other and to find mutual interests. Participants have a great time.
